ABOUT ME

Robert Borelli is a former Mafia insider turned inspirational speaker and author of "The Witness: A Tale of the Mafia, Drugs, and Redemption." Raised in Brooklyn, New York, he began working for the Gambino crime family at just fourteen, quickly gaining a reputation as a fearless enforcer. By his twenties, he had numerous arrests and two murder charges, catching the attention of powerful figures within the Mafia. However, his rise was overshadowed by a devastating addiction, leading to a downward spiral that left him homeless and hopeless.

Facing over 130 criminal charges and a lengthy prison sentence, Robert experienced a profound spiritual awakening while incarcerated. Embracing faith, he transformed his life and now dedicates himself to helping others break free from crime and addiction. As a sought-after speaker, Robert shares his powerful testimony with youth and rehabilitation ministries, demonstrating that change is possible even in the darkest of circumstances. His story has been featured on platforms like Pop Talk and Gangland Wire, captivating audiences with his raw and honest portrayal of life inside the Mafia and his journey to redemption.
